DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

> A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –
>
> (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bingham et al (US 5,838,667; art cited by applicant).

Regarding claims 1-5, Bingham, as shown in figures 1(a), 1(b) and 6, teaches an ADSL communications between the modems comprising a remote unit (204) comprising a transmitter for transmitting upstream communication signals from the remote unit to a central unit (201); a receiver for receiving downstream communication signals from the central unit; and a controller that synchronizes the upstream communication signals with the downstream communication signals, thereby the upstream and downstream communication-signals are time division duplexed. See also column 2, lines 53-62; column 4, lines 41-54; column 5, line 30 to column 6, line 12 and column 7, lines 20-49.

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Reference Verma et al (US 2004/0240535) is cited because it is pertinent to synchronization between the modems.
